10 The Feely family (Reflexive pronouns) ▶ p. 72, p. 176 • GF 8 (pp. 155–156)

Mr and Mrs Feely have gone on a short holiday, so the Feely kids and Grandpa Feely have to look after themselves. Complete the sentences with:

myself • yourself • herself • itself • ourselves • yourselves • themselves years. They can run as fast as horses and can smell maybe 100 times better than people.

Tommy This week we have to cook for ourselves, Grandpa.

Grandpa But I can't cook for myself. You'll have to cook for me.

Tommy Grandpa, you can make yourself some sandwiches. I'm going out now. When Mum and Dad left, they said

'Enjoy yourselves.' Remember?

Grandpa Well, what about Mo and Jo?

Tommy Don't worry about them, Grandpa.

They can look after themselves. They're at a sleepover.

Grandpa Oh. Well, can Julie cook for me?

Tommy Julie is in her room. She's teaching herself to play the violin. Can't you hear her?

Grandpa Oh, I thought that noise was the cat! Hmmm. And what about food?

Tommy Don't worry about the cat, Grandpa. The cat can feed itself.

Grandpa Yes, I know that, but the cat can't feed me!
